ANSWERING GOD'S CALL: "Let anyone with ears to hear listen!" Our Lord teaches us the truth of our hearts and his word in today's parable. Are we ready to have ears to hear his word with an honest and good heart, to retain it and bring forth fruit with endurance? This is the calling for all of us, and for some of us that includes a special dedication through the ordained, religious or monastic life. If this may be on your heart to discern, contact the Vocations Office at 206-329-9219 or email: vocations@ephx.org

This Week Our Clergy Go For Their Annual Retreat

Please keep them in your prayers. Please pray for vocations to the priestly and diaconal ministry and please especially pray for the priests and deacons that we already have! Our Clergy like everyone among us are always in need of renewal and strengthening. They themselves must be people of prayer to remain closely in tune with the Lord and His Will. Pray for your Priests and all the Priests of our Eparchy and Church, that they will always be open to God's Grace, and that they will ever become more strong, convinced, and dedicated to the Church and the ministry for which they were ordained.

Let us pray that they will not fall or make mistakes and, if they do, that they will get back on track and always move forward in renewal, humility, and holiness.

Let us pray for their happy traveling and for a happy homecoming. May they all come back renewed!

November 1 is the feast of Holy Wonderworkers and Unmercenary Physicians Cosmas and Damian. On the occasion of this feast in our parish we will have:

GENESIS

An Eastern Christian Perspective

Andrew Hayes, Ph.D.

Wednesdays, November 3 - 17 @ 8 - 9 p.m. ET

Join us as we immerse ourselves in the study of Genesis, which St. Ephrem the Syrian called "the treasure house of the Ark, the crown of the Law." With Sts. Ephrem, John Chrysostom, Basil the Great & Gregory of Nyssa as our guides, we will dive deeply into the Sacred Word which created the world in the beginning.

"All people have a cross to carry. There is no man in this world without a cross. Those who met Christ from the time of their childhood have for their Cross, the Cross of our Christ. Those who met Jesus and have repented on behalf of their previous life, have a cross, the cross of the good and penitent thief. And those who have met Jesus and have not received Him, have in their life the cross of the unrepentant thief. So we all have our cross. Everyone carries his cross and ascends his own Golgotha (the hill outside Jerusalem on which Jesus was crucified), the Golgotha of his personal life.

Archimandrite Chrysostom
