"After the end of the General Judgment, the Righteous Judge (God) will declare the decision both to the righteous and to the sinners. To the righteous He will say: 'Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the Kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world;' while to the sinners He will say: 'Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels.' And these will go away to eternal hades, while the righteous will go to eternal life. This retribution after the General Judgment will be complete, final, and definitive. It will complete, because it is not the soul alone, as the Partial Judgment of man after death, but the soul together with the body, that will receive what is deserved. It will be final, because it will be enduring and not temporary like that at Partial Judgment. And it will be definitive, because both for the righteous and for the sinners it will be unalterable and eternal."

(Sunday of Orthodoxy, the Restoration of the Icons) is on March 6 this year.) There is no cost to participate, but you do need to register so that you may join in.

"One shouldn't expect spiritual understanding from people who don't believe in God. It's better if one simply prays for them that God will forgive them and enlighten them."
