The saints are like the Lord, but so are all people who keep the commandments of Christ; but those who live according to their own passions and do not repent are like the devil. I think that if this mystery were revealed to the world, then they would stop serving the devil, and every one would strive to serve the Lord with all his strength, and to be like Him.

St. Silouan the Athonite

All Souls Saturdays 2022: We have 5 All Souls Saturdays (3 remainings) to commemorate our dead relatives. The next All Souls Saturday will be Saturday, March 19. Please use the special envelopes marked "All Souls Saturdays" that are available in the narthex. Please place an offering envelope with the names of your loved ones in the offering basket.

Great Fast Confession: We are in the time of Great Fast. Our Christian duty is to take care of people: sick, infirm, elderly, etc. We can see if for some reason these people are not receiving the Holy Mysteries of Confession and Communion. Please speak with them and ask if they would like in the time of Great Lent be united with Christ, if they want to be cleansed by the Holy Sacrament of Confession and later receive Jesus in Holy Communion. If you know people who need a pastoral visit of a Byzantine Catholic priest, share this information with Fr. Vasyl. Thank you.

LITURGY INTENTIONS: you may request a liturgy intention for the deceased or living. Kindly use the envelopes located in the narthex in church and drop the envelope into the Collection Basket or hand it to Father. Please print legibly. Thank You.

"Prayer changes from entreaty to thanksgiving, and meditation on the divine truths of faith fills the heart with a sense of jubilation and unimpeachable hope. This hope is a foretaste of future blessings, of which the soul even now receives direct experience, and so it comes to know in part the surpassing richness of God's bounty, in accordance with the Psalmist's words, 'Taste and know that the Lord is bountiful' (Ps. 34:8). For He is the jubilation of the righteous, the joy of the upright, the gladness of the humble, and the solace of those who grieve because of Him."
